MISSION

The rain on your window. The phone in your pocket. The way you can’t help staring into a fire. You may not think of these things as science, but they are; and explaining why they are and how they work is the very definition of Popular Science. We demystify the world.

J O E  B R O W N
Popular Science Editor-in-Chief
More than a magazine

It’s 2020. Let’s stop pretending you get your news from magazines. Popular Science’s quarterly strategy isn’t about cutting costs or doing less work (it’s more expensive and harder); it’s about creating a print product that better serves a modern reader. Each issue dives deep into a single subject, and, over 100-plus pages, explores it in a way no other publication can. So instead of a periodical, each edition of Popular Science serves as a keepsake.

The PopSci staff applies this platform-specific thinking to each of our channels. We break news and analyze daily and week-scale happenings on PopSci.com; we provide up-to-the-second science and tech commentary in our social feeds; we create delightful, bite-size movies on YouTube; and our podcasts deliver an audio experience you can’t hear anywhere else.

What you will find, across every channel, is a cohesive strategy that signals our commitment not just to quality stories, but to delivering them in the best way possible. We call this “the right content on the right platform.”

Spring
ORIGINS / OLD STUFF
AD CLOSE: 1/6/20 ON SALE: 2/25/20
This issue will focus on beginnings: what we can unearth about what’s come before, and what we’ll leave behind for the future. From seminal examples of important technologies to animal foreparents, we’ll take readers on a crackin’ ride through history in the making. Yes, there will be dinosaurs. Yes, there will be archaeology, conservation, and restoration. Yes, it will be awesome—a classic, if you will.

Summer
PLAY
AD CLOSE: 3/30/20 ON SALE: 5/19/20
We’re embracing summer and diving (get it?) into the world of play. There will be games, Olympic stadiums, sports and puzzles and awesome feats of human ability. And not just humans, either. How do animals play? What is “fun” for an Artificial Intelligence? We’re about to get serious about fun. But not too serious. Because fun! FUN!

Fall
MYSTERY / SECRETS
AD CLOSE: 6/29/20 ON SALE: 8/18/20
Science is one big detective story, and our Fall issue will take that truth and run with it. Why do we see ghosts? Will we ever be able to close cold-case files? Can anyone make a perpetual motion machine? Loch. Ness. Monster. (Maybe.) This issue will explain the hard-to-explain—and embrace being gloriously stumped by the unsolvable secrets of our universe.

Winter
OOPS!
AD CLOSE: 9/28/20 ON SALE: 11/17/20
Shit happens, and sometimes that’s a good thing. The microwave oven was discovered when a radio-wave engineer melted a candy bar in his pocket. Penicillin came about because of the best-ever example of bad lab hygiene. For our final issue of 2020, we’ll explore how failures breed success, discoveries happen by accident, and lessons arise from our greatest missteps.

Founded in 1872, Popular Science is the world’s largest science and technology magazine.
The following are certain general terms and conditions governing advertising published in Popular Science MAGAZINE (the “Magazine”) published by Bonnier Active Media (the “Publisher”).

1. Submission of advertising for publication constitutes acceptance of these terms by Advertiser and Agency. No conditions other than those set forth on this rate card and the insertion order shall be binding on Publisher unless specifically agreed to in writing by Publisher.

2. The Magazine is a member of the Alliance for Audited Media (AAM). Total audited circulation is reported on an issue-by-issue basis in Publisher’s statements audited by the AAM. Total audited circulation for the Magazine comprises paid plus verified.

3. All advertisements and their content are subject to Publisher’s approval. Publisher reserves the right to reject or cancel any advertisement, insertion order, space reservation, or position commitment at any time. Publisher shall not be liable for any costs or damages if for any reason Publisher fails to publish an advertisement, or for errors in key number or advertiser index.

4. Conditions, other than rates, are subject to change by Publisher without notice. Rates are subject to change upon notice from the Publisher, except as specified in a signed contract, and are based on combined print and digital circulation. Cancellation of any space reservation by the Advertiser or its Agency for any reason other than a change in rates will result in an adjustment of the rate (shortage) based on past and subsequent insertions to reflect actual space used at the earned frequency or volume rate.

5. Cancellation or changes in orders may not be made by Advertiser or Agency after specified closing date or digital campaign launch date. Advertisements not received by closing date will not be entitled to approval or revision by Advertiser or Agency. In the event of cancellation, Advertiser and Agency agree to reimburse Publisher for any unit-related outside production costs incurred prior to cancellation.

6. Positioning of advertisements is at the discretion of Publisher except where request for a specific position is granted, in writing, by Publisher.

7. Publisher is not liable for delays in delivery, or non-delivery, in the event of an act of god, action by any governmental or quasi-governmental entity, fire, flood, insurrection, riot, explosion, embargo, strikes whether legal or illegal, labor or material shortage, transportation interruption of any kind, work slow down, or any condition beyond the control of Publisher affecting production or delivery in any manner. Any claim for under delivery not asserted within one year of insertion is waived.

8. Advertiser and Agency shall be jointly and severally liable for monies due and payable to Publisher for advertising ordered and published. Should collection efforts become necessary, Advertiser and Agency agree to pay reasonable attorney fees, expenses, and costs incurred in connection with collection of all monies due.

9. Advertiser and Agency warrant that they are properly authorized to publish the entire content and subject matter of all advertising submitted for publication. When advertisements containing the names, likenesses, and/or testimonials of living persons are submitted for publication, the order or request for the publication thereof shall be deemed to be a warranty by Advertiser and Agency that they have obtained written consent of the use of the name, likeness, and/or testimonial of each and every living person which is contained therein. Advertiser and Agency agree to indemnify and hold Publisher harmless from and against any loss, expense, or other liability resulting from any claims or suits for misappropriation, libel, violation of rights of privacy, plagiarism, copyright infringement, and any other claims or suits that may arise out of the publication of such advertisement as provided by Advertiser or Agency.

10. Creative work produced by Publisher remains the sole property of Publisher.

11. Until credit is approved, Advertisements are run on a prepaid basis only.

12. Agency commission (or equivalent): up to 15% (where applicable to recognized agents) of gross advertising charges after earned Advertiser discounts.
